Mr Noble's News

I hope your week is going well. It is a big week for KSOTA with the Bullarama on Friday night and the Picnic Races on Saturday. Our P&C will be very active at the Picnic Races as we are one of the major food venues for the hungry race goers.

If you aren't able to get to Derby I hope your week goes well.

- 1) Assembly this Friday 8am in the Muster Room.
- 2) No lessons for Mrs P's or Miss Kerr's students today—Tuesday.

Medical Students

We have hosted Medical Students most years at KSOTA. We are hosting them again this year, however they will not be physically in Derby due to the Covid situation. We will be holding 3 sessions with them on line next week 10.30 am Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

I am hoping to get the link today so we can all join in on these sessions. Your timetable may not allow it or you may only be able to stay for a while, or you may only be able to attend one or two of the sessions.

Any level of involvement is fine. I am treating these sessions as hosting visitors in our school and a great opportunity for our students to interact with young Medical students.

Stay tuned.

Visits

We have started visits and hopefully they will all fall into place across the term. We try hard to get teachers out to their students and so far we have made all the scheduling work with only one visit having to be rescheduled so far. We want the visits to suit everyone and as always communication is the key.

Visits are an integral part of our business here at KSOTA and they may mean that some things may be cancelled as a result of teachers being out of the school. When classes are cancelled it can be frustrating but please be assured that we don't cancel lessons unless there is no other course of action open to us.

Have a great rest of the week.

Paul Noble
